The notice must clearly specify the damage. Notwithstanding the aforesaid, if a container has been delivered to the Merchant, the Merchant must prove that the damage to or loss of the Goods did not occur during the period after delivery, when the container was in the custody of the Merchant.
- (e) Compensation shall be calculated by reference to the value of the Goods at the time they were delivered to the Carrier for Carriage.
- (f) IN THE EVENT THAT THE LAW WHICH IS APPLICABLE UNDER CLAUSE 5 (2) (a) IS NOT MANDATORY AND PROVIDES FOR LIABILITY EXCEEDING 2 SDRS, THE MAXIMUM LIABILITY SHALL BE 2 SDRS. SDRS MEANS SPECIAL DRAWING RIGHTS AS DEFINED BY THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND.
- (g) IF THE STAGE OF THE CARRIAGE DURING WHICH LOSS OR DAMAGE OCCURRED IS NOT KNOWN, THE CARRIER'S MAXIMUM LIABILITY SHALL IN NO EVENT WHATSOEVER AND HOWEVER ARISING EXCEED 2 SDRS PER KILO OF GROSS WEIGHT OF THE GOODS LOST OR DAMAGED.

The provisions set forth in COGSA shall also govern before the Goods loaded on or after they are discharged from the vessel. The Carrier's maximum liability in respect to the Goods shall not exceed USD 500 per package or, where the Goods are not shipped in packages, USD 500 per customary freight unit unless the nature and value of the Goods has been declared by the Merchant and inserted in writing on page 2 of the Bill of Lading and said Merchant shall have paid the applicable ad valorem Freight rate set forth in Carrier's Tariff.
- (3) Shipper's declared value
- The Merchant agrees and acknowledges that the Carrier has no knowledge of the value of the Goods and that compensation higher than that provided for herein, may not be claimed unless the nature and value of such Goods have been declared by the Merchant, agreed to by the Carrier and inserted into the Bill of Lading before shipment. In addition the applicable ad valorem Freight rate as set out in the Carrier's Tariff must be paid. Any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value. If the declared value is higher than the actual value, the Carrier shall not be liable in any compensation higher than the net invoice value of the Goods plus freight and insurance. (4) Limitation of Liability

- It is hereby agreed by the Merchant, that the Carrier qualifies as a person entitled to limit liability under any Convention or Act pertaining to limitation of liability on maritime claims, without the application of the Limitation of Liability Convention (including a slot-charter) to the manager or operator of the ship, or salvor rendering services in connection with salvage operations. If any claims are made against the Servants or Agents, they are entitled to avail themselves of the same limitation available to the Carrier.

The Merchant shall pay any additional costs of the Carriage to, and delivery and storage at, such place or port.

19. Dangerous Goods

- (1) No Goods which are or may become dangerous, inflammable or damaging (including radioactive materials), shall be tendered to the Carrier for Carriage without his express consent in writing, and without the Container as well as the Goods themselves being distinctly marked on the outside so as to indicate the nature and character of any such Goods and so as to comply with any applicable laws, regulations or requirements. If any such Goods are delivered to the Carrier without such written consent and/or marking, or if in the opinion of the Carrier the Goods are or are likely to become of a dangerous, inflammable or damaging nature, they may at any time be destroyed, disposed of, abandoned, or rendered harmless without compensation to the Merchant.
- (2) The Merchant warrants that the Goods are sufficiently packed in compliance with all laws or regulations and requirements with regard to the nature of the Goods.

- (4) Nothing contained in this Clause shall deprive the Carrier of any of his rights provided for elsewhere.

20. Notification and Delivery

- (1) Any failure to give notification of the arrival of the goods shall not involve the Carrier in any liability nor relieve the Merchant of any obligation hereunder.

If the Merchant fails to do so the Carrier shall be entitled, without notice, to unpack the Goods if packed in Containers and/or to store the Goods ashore, afloat, in the open or under cover, at the sole risk of the Merchant. - (3) If the Merchant fails to take delivery of the Goods within thirty days of delivery becoming due under Clause 20 (2), or if in the opinion of the Carrier they are likely to deteriorate, decay, become worthless or incur charges whether for storage or otherwise in excess of their value, the Carrier may, without prejudice to any other rights which he may have against the Merchant, without notice sell, destroy or dispose of the Goods and apply any proceeds of sale in reduction of the sums due to the Carrier from the Merchant.

21. FCL Multiple Bills of Lading

- (1) Goods will only be delivered in a Container to the Merchant if all Bills of Lading in respect to the contents of the Container have been surrendered authorising delivery to a single Merchant at a single Place of Delivery. In the event that this requirement is not fulfilled the Carrier will not be bound to deliver the Goods and, in respect of Goods which Bills of Lading have been surrendered, deliver them to the Merchant on a LCL basis. Such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder, but will only be effected against payment by the Merchant of LCL Service Charges and any charges appropriate to LCL Goods (as laid down in the Tariff) together with the actual costs incurred for any additional services rendered.
- (2) If this is a FCL multiple Bill of Lading (as evidenced by the qualification of the tally acknowledged on page 2 to the effect that it is "One of ... part cargoes in the Container"), then the Goods detailed on page 2 are said to comprise a part of the contents of the Container indicated. If the Carrier is required to deliver the Goods to more than one Merchant and if all or part of the total Goods within the Container consists of bulk Goods or unappropriated Goods, or is or becomes mixed or unmarked or unidentifiable, the Holders of Bills of Lading relating to Goods within the Container shall take delivery thereof (including any damage) and bear any shortage in such proportions as the Carrier shall in his absolute discretion determine, and such delivery shall constitute due delivery hereunder.

22. General Average & Salvage

General average to be adjusted in any currency at any place selected by the Carrier and according to the York/Antwerp Rules 1974 as amended in 1990 and 1994. Any period of time bar shall start to run from the date of the general average adjustment. Any claims and/or disputes relating to general average shall exclusively subject to the Laws and Jurisdictions set out in Clause 25.

23. Both-to-Blame Collision

The Both-to-Blame Collision clause published by the Baltic and International Maritime Council and obtainable from the Carrier or his agents upon request is hereby incorporated into this Bill of Lading.

24. Validity

In the event that anything herein contained is inconsistent with any applicable International Convention or national law which cannot be departed from by private contract, the provisions hereof shall to the extent of such inconsistency but not further be null and void. Unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing between the Merchant and the Carrier, the Terms and Conditions of this Bill of Lading supersede any prior agreements between Merchant and Carrier.

25. Law and Jurisdiction

Except as otherwise provided specifically herein any claim or dispute arising under this Bill of Lading shall be governed by the law of the Federal Republic of Germany and determined in the Hamburg courts to the exclusion of the jurisdiction of the courts of any other place. In case the Carrier intends to sue the Merchant the Carrier has also the option to file a suit at the Merchant's place of business. In the event this clause is inapplicable under local law then jurisdiction and choice of law shall lie in either the Port of Loading or Port of Discharge at Carrier's option.
